You have a duty to the court to give a full, frank and clear disclosure of all your financial and other relevant circumstances.

A failure to give full and accurate disclosure may result in any order the court makes being set aside.

If you are found to have been deliberately untruthful, criminal proceedings for perjury may be taken against you.

You must attach documents to the form where they are specifically sought and you may attach other documents where it is necessary to explain or clarify any of the information that you give.

Essential documents that must accompany this statement are detailed in the form.

If there is not enough room on the form for any particular piece of information, you may continue on an attached sheet of paper.

If you are in doubt about how to complete any part of this form you should seek legal advice. This Statement must be sworn before a solicitor, a commissioner for oaths or an Officer of the Court or, if abroad, a notary or duly authorised official, before it is filed with the Court or sent to the other party (see last page).

4 Other Information

4.1 Details of any significant changes in your assets or income.

At both sections 4.1.1 and 4.1.2, INCLUDE:

- ALL assets held both within and outside England and Wales
- The disposal of any asset

4.1.1 Significant changes in assets or income during the LAST 12 months.

My income was reduced because of my operation.

4.1.2 Significant changes in assets or income likely to occur during the NEXT 12 months.

4.2 Brief details of the standard of living enjoyed by you and your spouse/civil partner during the marriage/civil partnership.

High standard of living with cars, holidays and own business.

- 4.3 Are there any particular contributions to the family property and assets or outgoings, or to family life, or the welfare of the family that have been made by you, your partner or anyone else that you think should be taken into account? If there are any such items, briefly describe the contribution and state the amount, when it was made and by whom.

INCLUDE:

- Contributions already made
- Contributions that will be made in the foreseeable future

I have contributed to the upkeep of the family and paid all expenses and utility bills since the marriage.
I have also contributed to my daughter's private education costing approximately £300,000.00. I have contributed to convert FMH loft into an office space, increasing the value of the house by 30%.
I paid the deposit in the sum of £5400.00 to purchase the FMH and half of the purchase price. The rest of the money came from the money I paid to the Respondent's father to purchase the land in Greece. I also paid the stamp duty and Solicitor's fees and part of the balance required in the sum of £9,800.00. I also paid for the renovation of the property in the sum of £40,000.00. The Respondent benefitted from the rental income and other income from the land and house at Kalipado, Zakynthos.

- 4.4 Bad behaviour or conduct by the other party will only be taken into account in very exceptional circumstances when deciding how assets should be shared after divorce/dissolution. If you feel it should be taken into account in your case, identify the nature of the behaviour or conduct below.

The Respondent accrued debts by overspending on her credit cards.
I gave her money to clear the debts in the sum of £15,000.00
The Respondent remortgaged the FMH twice and obtained money

- 4.5 Give details of any other circumstances that you consider could significantly affect the extent of the financial provision to be made by or for you or any child of the family.

INCLUDE (the following list is not exhaustive):

- Earning capacity
- Disability
- Inheritance prospects
- Redundancy
- Retirement
- Any plans to marry, form a civil partnership or cohabit
- Any contingent liabilities

I am disabled and need good medical help and therefore I will have to live in the UK. My earning capacity is presently nil and therefore I have no mortgage ability.
Plot of land in Volimes, Zakynthos (purchased in 1986), plot of land in Kalamaki Zakynthos (purchased in 1984) and the land and house in Kalipado, Zakynthos (inherited land from my father and house built with my brother's funds) are non-matrimonial property.

5 Order Sought

5.1 If you are able at this stage, specify what kind of orders you are asking the court to make. Even if you cannot be specific at this stage, if you are able to do so, indicate:

- a) If the family home is still owned, whether you are asking for it to be transferred to yourself or your spouse/civil partner or whether you are saying it should be sold
- b) Whether you consider this is a case for continuing spousal maintenance/maintenance for your civil partner or whether you see the case as being appropriate for a "clean break". (A 'clean break' means a settlement or order which provides amongst other things, that neither you nor your spouse/civil partner will have any further claim against the income or capital of the other party. A 'clean break' does not terminate the responsibility of a parent to a child.)
- c) Whether you are seeking a pension sharing or pension attachment order
- d) If you are seeking a transfer or settlement of any property or assets, identify the property or assets in question

3 assets obtained within the marriage to be divided equally 50/50 and a declaration that the non matrimonial assets such as the land & property purchased by me before the marriage and then property inherited are mine.

5.2 If you are seeking a variation of an ante-nuptial or post-nuptial settlement or a relevant settlement made during, or in anticipation of, a civil partnership, identify the settlement, by whom it was made, its trustees and beneficiaries and state why you allege it is a settlement which the court can vary.

5.3 If you are seeking an avoidance of disposition order, or if you have already applied for such an order, identify the property to which the disposition relates and the person or body in whose favour the disposition is alleged to have been made.
